

Supplementary Figure 8. Fibrosis in human breast cancer tumors and corresponding xenografts. The original human tumors (H) and their corresponding xenografts (X) for 9 models were stained with Masson's trichrome (Original magnification x400).